Exploring the Magick of the Egyptian Goddesses

A one day workshop of inner discovery and healing of the Soul

Saturday, 17 October 2009 – 10.30am to 4.00pm

Join with us as we journey back in time to the ancient land of the Pharaohs, pyramids and to the myriad of Goddesses, many of which are still worshipped today.

By using the tools of ritual, myth and magick, reconstruct some of the most ancient and holy rites that will allow these powerful Goddesses to come forth into our modern age. Whilst their worship may be ancient, the messages and inspiration that they bring with them is timeless.

Six Goddess will form the focal point of this journey, however many more will be connected with as their stories are shared.

We will begin our journey by creating a sacred space in honour of the Diving Feminine and the many Goddesses who were known to the ancient Egyptians. We then journey up into the stars where we meet Nut (also known as Nuit), the Goddess of the sky and the heavens. Learn how She is also connected with the Egyptian Underworld and how we can benefit from this sacred knowledge.

The great teacher, healer and Mistress of Magicks, As’t (or as She is more commonly known by the Greek interpretation - Isis), will be invoked, allowing us to be filled with Her power and guidance.

From the shadows, Isis’s twin Nephthys, will guide us into Her dreamscape where we will be provided with many sacred keys that will enable us to unlock Her hidden messages.

Are we walking in our own “Truth” – or being led by other people and society norms? Enter the realm of Ma’at, the Egyptian concept of Universal truth and justice. Open yourself up to Her energies guidance. Allow yourself to gift of walking in your own “Truth” – the truth of your Soul.

The fiery, avenger, Sekhmet and the gentle Goddess of beauty, Hathor, are two sides of the same Goddess. Experience their unique powers and learn how to transform anger into beauty through the art of healing.

Other Goddesses who may make themselves known will include the cat Goddess, Bastet, Mut, the wife of Amun, and Selkis, “the one who causes the throat to breathe”.

A detailed spiral bound booklet gifted to each participant to keep.

Inner discovery and healing of the Soul is an ongoing journey.

About your Tutor:
Frances Billinghurst has been interested in metaphysics and occult subjects for most of her life. She first connected with the Goddess, the Divine Feminine, in the late 1980s, and later this connection was strengthened during a Wiccan rite known as "Drawing down the Moon", the great Egyptian Goddess Isis made her presence felt. Since that time Frances has continued to strengthen her personal relationship with the Divine Feminine - the Ancient Matriarch - the Goddess.

Frances founded the Temple of the Dark Moon in 1999 and commenced writing as well as sharing her knowledge about the Goddess through offering various workshops and events.

She has been a regular contributor to "Insight", Australia’s No.1 spiritual lifestyle magazine since 2002, with her articles also appearing in many other national as well as international publications, including "SageWoman" and the 2008 Llewellyn "Witches" calendar.

In 2003 Frances spoke at the New Zealand Pagan Fest where she also led the opening ritual with Chief Druid, Philip Carr-Gomm. She will be returning to speak again in 2010, at which time she envisages to also launch her first book on the Goddess.
